COUNCILS GIVING BACK

Each FPSA Council has its cause that it champions. You can click here to view the various charities and scholarship opportunities that each council supports. 100% of funds raised go to these charitable causes, and each donor of an item chooses which council and its cause to support. Please note: All items donated to the MISA Foundation are tax-deductible; all other item donations are not.

March 4th Deadline

The deadline to donate auction items to this year's charity auction is Monday, March 4th, 2024. Please use this online donation form to submit an auction item today! Typical silent auction items include electronics, gift baskets, and travel experiences. Live auction items include advertising/marketing packages from various industry-related publishers and other "must-have" items.

Must Attend Event

During the 2024 Executive Exchange & Conference on March 27th, the Charity Auction is the fundraising event by the FPSA Councils to give back to various causes, campaigns, organizations, and scholarships impacting the food and beverage processing industry's communities. The Charity Auction is divided into the Silent Auction and the Live Auction.
