What is FPSA?

Food Processing Suppliers Association (FPSA) is the trade association for suppliers to the food processing and packaging industry and the host of PROCESS EXPO.

What is the FPSA Women's Council?

- Purpose:
 - A forum to facilitate positive transformation for women in the food and beverage industry
 - Increase employment of women in food and beverage processing and manufacturing
 - To build awareness and strengthen/maintain membership and participation of FPSA and PROCESS EXPO
- The FPSA Women's Council is tailored for all women regardless of position, age, or individual situation held within their company.
